REVISION WORK STARTED.

Recently Appointed Commission At Work on Vermont Statutes.

Montpelier, Jan. 7.—The commission to revise the Vermont statutes met at the State House yesterday afternoon and mapped out the work. For the first month all will work in Montpelier and then they will divide, Hale K. Darling, with an assistant and a stenographer, going to Chelsea, and W. A. Lord, with an assistant, and stenographer, remaining in this city. In addition to John Cattanech, stenographer, Miss Katherine Mann of St. Albans, who had experience in revising the statutes of Massachusetts, has been engaged. The commission has been granted the use of the clerk of the House in the State House.

FIRE AT EAST MONTPELIER.

House and Barn Owned by Sarah Redway Burned to Ground.

East Montpelier, Jan. 7.—The story and a half house and a barn belonging to Sarah Redway, and located a half mile from the residence of George Howland, were burned to the ground yesterday afternoon. The occupants of the house lost practically everything. There was an insurance of $300 on the house. The cause of the fire, which started at 2 o'clock, is unknown, but it is thought that flames may have sprung from a pile of ashes in a corner of the shed.

PRaise FROM BRYAN.

On Roosevelt's Stand as to Interstate Commission.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 6.—In the course of an address here last night, William J. Bryan took occasion to praise President Roosevelt's attitude in advocating larger powers for the interstate commerce commission. The President's attitude will cause a split in the Republican party," declared Mr. Bryan, "but Democrats will be found siding with the President."

Mr. Bryan referred to Mr. Roosevelt as one who would be regarded as the greatest President in United States history, if he carried out his programme, and added that he had made himself more popular by declaring himself against a third term.

Trustees Get Endowment Fund.

Manchester, Jan. 7.—The endowment fund of $40,000 for the permanent maintenance of the Mark Skinner library has been turned over to the trustees. This fund was bequeathed by will of the late Frances Skinner Willing of Chicago, founder of the library.

Keep Thinking About It.

Cough Syrups that are constipating leave the stomach and bowels in a dangerous condition. A cough syrup that is a laxative is sure to give better results. Lix-all is a laxative, and if it fails to cure your cough or cold we will pay back your money.
